Canyon Rim Academy is dedicated to our vision of promoting the learning, achievement, development, and well-being of each student while embracing our core values of: learning, respect, safety, love, peace and joy. The Special education teacher works with students who have a wide range of learning, mental, emotional, and physical disabilities. Under the direction of the school principal, the special education teacher plans and provides for appropriate learning experiences for students with disabilities in a variety of educational settings. This person is responsible for creating a flexible program and learning environment that provides specialized instruction for students with disabilities, such that the students benefit from the general education curriculum to the greatest extent possible when supported with supplemental aides, accommodations, and other needed supports.

- Manage and provide instructional guidance and general strategies for a caseload of students in the mild/moderate range.
- Develop, write and help implement Individualized Education Programs (IEP's).
- Communicate regularly with parents of special need students to discuss their child's progress and to insure that their IEP goals are being met, and that their needs are addressed in a timely and appropriate fashion.
- Consult with teachers and coordinate the implementation of specially designed instruction as defined in the IEP.
- Employ special educational strategies and techniques during instruction to improve the development of sensory, motor skills, language, cognition, and memory.
- Instruct students in academic subjects using a variety of techniques such as phonetics, multi-sensory learning, and repetition to reinforce learning and to meet student's varying needs and interests.
- Teach and mentor students in small groups and one-on-one.
- Teach socially acceptable behavior, as determined by the student's individualized education programs (IEP's) by employing techniques designed to promote educational, social and emotional development.
- Maintain accurate student records and prepare reports on children and activities, as required by law, school policy and administrative regulations.
- Assist in collection and interpretation of data for providing appropriate classroom interventions.

The Special education teacher will work as part of a team that typically includes the K-6 classroom teacher, speech language pathologist, school counselor, principal and parents. The teacher will work with students who have autism and emotional conditions, such as anxiety and depression.

To apply, please submit your resume to dgarrett@canyonrimacademy.org no later than April 10, 2018. Interviews will be conducted in April. Please include a day time phone number on your resume.
